

MME. NAZIMOVA BRIDE OF ACTOR IN HER COMPANY

Russian Actress Weds C. E. Bryant in Her New York Apartments.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Mme. Alla Nazimova, who is now appearing in "Bella Donna," was married quietly last night in her apartments at 18 West 108th street, to Charles E. Bryant, who is playing the part of Dr. Imeson in the same production.

An announcement was made before the marriage and there were few who knew of it. The engagement had not been announced even. Mr. Bryant also appeared as the Egyptian in the London production of the same play.

Mme. Nazimova was born in Yalta, Crimea, Russia, on March 22, 1878. As a child she was taken to Geneva, where she received her education, and learned to play the violin. In young womanhood she returned to Russia, where she made her appearance on the stage in her birthplace, playing a violin solo at a concert.

Still Studies Violin.
A year later she came to St. Petersburg Conservatoire in Odessa to study the violin. She chose instead to take the dramatic course, and at the end of three years she won the gold medal.

The season after graduation Mme. Nazimova became a leading woman and producer at Kirovskaya in the north of Russia, where she played about 30 parts in a single season.
In the season of 1901 she played in Russia and the next season was in Poland, where she appeared in St. Petersburg, where she played Zaza, Camille, Magda, Hedda, Gaby, Trilby, and in "The Second Mrs. Tanguer."

Interpreted them Roles.
With Paul Orlens and his company she came to this country in 1906, where she played in repertoire at the Criterion Theater in this city. In May of the following year she signed a contract to act in English the following November, although she only knew half a dozen words of the English language then.

She made her first appearance in English in Hedda Gabler at the Princess Theater under the management of Henry Miller. This was followed by "A Doll's House" and in the same year she appeared at the Bijou Theater in "Countess Coquette." The same year she appeared in the production of "The Master Builder," and later was seen in the same theater in "The Comet."

PRESS CLUB PLANS THRILLING DEBATE

"Bow Legs Greater Menace to Navigation Than Knock Knees," Is Topic.

A debate which promises to exceed in brilliancy and excitement that of a couple of years ago when four of America's leading figures, at the National Press Club squabbled for half an evening on the subject of "Whiskers against Bald-heads," is scheduled for next Thursday night at the Press Club.

This time, the question of "Resolved: That Bow-legs are a greater Menace to Navigation than Knock-knees," will be debated from every angle. Taking the affirmative side of the question will be Governor-elect Sulzer, of New York and Governor-elect Cox, of Ohio. Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania, and Senator Gore of Oklahoma will uphold the negative side of the question.

Red Cross Call.
The senate passed a bill yesterday giving the date of the annual meeting of the American Red Cross. The date provided for in the bill is the first Wednesday preceding the second Thursday in December.

Attractive Features At Church's Bazaar

The bazaar of the Ryland M. E. Church, Tenth and D streets southwest, continued last night to raise money for the church. There was a good attendance.
Among those in charge are C. W. Bohannon, Fred Y. Yount, and M. C. Hazen, grocery department; Mrs. E. D. Gallaher and Mrs. Ella Stahl, fancy table; Mrs. M. C. Hazen, doll table; Mrs. Fred Y. Yount, apron table; Miss Beattie Thomas and Miss Clara Michael, lemonade table; Miss Mary C. Brewer, ice cream and flower table; Mrs. Cornwell, cake table; Mr. Leonard, fish pond, and Miss Annie McGill, candy table. The Rev. Edward C. Gallaher is pastor of the church.

Abercrombie First On Roll in House

J. W. Abercrombie, newly elected member of Congress from Tuscaloosa, Tenn., will bear the distinction of having his name first on the House roll, displacing John M. Adair of Indiana, who held the position for six years.
The second letter in Abercrombie's name is responsible. It is "b" and in the alphabetical arrangement of the House roll he becomes the official bellwether of the Democrats. On party votes the sound of Abercrombie's name will be the signal for the Republicans to vote directly opposite.

SICKLES FAMILY WILL UNITE TODAY AT FESTIVE BOARD

Daughter of General Comes From England to Demand Accounting of Fortune.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—For the first time in a decade a united family may gather today about the board of Gen. Daniel E. Sickles in the mansion at Fifth avenue. Unless there is a sudden shift in the plans a solemn toast will be drunk tonight to the continued health of the aged master of the house of Sickles.

In the family party besides G. Stanton Sickles and his mother, who yesterday again manifested her loyalty to the picturesque old warrior by liquidating a $5,000 note against him, will be Mrs. Edna Sickles Crackenthorpe, daughter of General Sickles, and her husband, Capt. Dwight E. M. Crackenthorpe.

Greeted Mother With Open Arms.
Captain and Mrs. Crackenthorpe unexpectedly arrived last Wednesday aboard the Kronprinzessin Cecelia. Mrs. Crackenthorpe has lost none of the loveliness that made her the belle of Knickerbocker society in the late nineties.

With her husband Mrs. Crackenthorpe went late yesterday afternoon to the Hotel Albert, where Mrs. Sickles and her son have been living. Mother and daughter met in the lobby of the hotel. They rushed into each other's arms.

Wants An Accounting.
Although she is willing to consent to a reunion, Mrs. Crackenthorpe, during the fortnight she will spend in New York, will request her distinguished father to render an accounting of the fortune left to her in the will of her grandfather, George E. Sickles. The general is sole trustee of this fortune.

The general's daughter says her fortune amounts to $750,000. General Sickles told a reporter some time ago that the fortune amounted to but $60,000.

LICENSES TO WED GRANTED TO FOUR DIVORCED PERSONS

Appears To Be Open Season For Cupid Among Those Once Freed.

It seems to be the open season for Dan Cupid among divorced folk, his dangerous darts having gone unerringly to the hearts of four persons who were shipwrecked on their first matrimonial voyage, according to the marriage license records yesterday.

George A. Tucker, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who lost a wife through death, and a second in the divorce courts, today took out a license for a third helpmate, Mrs. Antoinette L. Perkins, of Hackensack, N. J., a divorcee. Judge C. E. Bundy of the Municipal Court, performed the ceremony.

Charles E. Greer took out a license to wed Mrs. Edna L. Bowman, a Washington divorcee, and Charles H. Walcott, who has been divorced, procured a license to marry Martha M. McDaniel. All are Washingtonians.

Anthony Dangerfield, colored, who has been a widower three times, made his fourth venture at the marriage altar today, and was married to Hattie Roy, a widow. He is seventy years old, and his bride is sixty.

Aged Residents Are Honored by Minister

Automobiles were used to convey old residents of Takoma Park from their homes to the Presbyterian Church, where services were held in their honor last night. A committee of women under the direction of Mrs. E. D. Bush arranged for the automobiles. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. John H. Elliott, who dwelt at some length on the beauties of old age and the feeling of satisfaction which there should be at the accomplishment of something worth while during a busy life.
